

SUMMER FASHION DRESS FOR AUGUST

GROOVY GOLF GEAR IS NOT JUST FOR THE YOUNG 'ENS YOU KNOW! DRESS TO IMPRESS AND YOU'LL LOOK, AND MORE-IMPORTANTLY, DO THE BUSINESS IN THE CLUBHOUSE, WHILE FEELING MORE CREATIVE ON COURSE

1. TRILBY COMING DOWN THE FAIRWAY....

Look at this beauty... How can you not be impressed by it? Whiteley hats have designed the 'Swing' trilby for exactly that purpose. So stick a piece of straw between your teeth, and swing!

RRP: £30

2. OPTICAL AVIATORS

Look like Tom Cruise and make yourself see better! These aviators from V: ONE can be made to prescription, which is handy when the old peepers are going. There's nothing more embarrassing than missed putts, due to bad eyes - "The flag's over here mate!"

RRP: £250

3. ORGANIC ASHWORTH

Organic clothing is featuring more and more in Chip and Spin. Ashworth say that the main benefits to their new organic range (of which this shirt is part of) are that, "the golfer's conscience is clean, he looks smart and will have golfing karma in his favour."

RRP: $59.50

4. SWOOSH SHORTS

If there is one pair of shorts worth investing in for the summer, then these Nikes merit anybody's US dollars. Your pins may look like sparrow's legs hanging out of a nest, but we can't do anything about that!

RRP: £30

5. HOWELL'S HELIUM HEELS

The Stuburt Helium Pro II's - as worn by David Howell, feature the innovative 'LiquiCell' technology. LiquiCell is an ultra-thin liquid interface that improves comfort through the significant reduction of shear forces and friction. They look pretty nice too.

RRP: £69.99
